

The map displays a travel route across Croatia, starting from Zadar in the north and heading south towards Dubrovnik. The route is marked with a thick blue line. Key locations along the route include Rijeka, Zagreb, and Split. A callout box on the route specifies a travel time of 2 hours and 15 minutes for a distance of 231 km. The map also shows various islands, lakes, and transportation routes, including highways and railways. The Adriatic Sea is visible to the south, and the Dalmatian Coast is clearly marked.
