Instructions regarding the operation of the ATA Carnet System in Lithuania

In accordance with the Republic of Lithuanian Customs Code rules on the implementation of the ATA Carnet System in Lithuania are the following:

1. The movement of goods from Customs offices located on the border of the Republic of Lithuania to internal Customs offices, in whose area of responsibility the goods will be used will be regularized by using ATA Carnet blue transit sheets.
2. Under the Republic of Lithuania Customs rules, blue transit sheets of ATA Carnets are used by Lithuanian Customs offices:
  1. for internal transit from Customs offices located on the border of the Republic of Lithuania to internal Customs offices only for holders who have a legal entity;
  2. for transit.
3. The following 15 internal Customs offices are authorized to accept ATA Carnets: Alytus, Kaunas, Klaipeda, Marijampole, Panevezys, Siauliai, Taurage, Telsiai, Mazeikiai, Utena, Vilnius and airports (Vilnius, Kaunas, Palanga, Siauliai). At the location of exhibitions or other events, additional internal Customs offices will be able to operate subject to information provided by the organisers.
4. ATA Carnet holders or representatives of ATA Carnet holders, named in boxes A and B of the front cover of the ATA Carnet, or third persons with power of attorney (established in Lithuanian or English), are entitled to present goods.
5. The establishment of the general list of the ATA Carnets by electronic means will speed up the work with the ATA Carnets.
