

New Zealand (NZ)

Passport for goods

Last Modified : 24/03/2026 10:09

Country/Customs territory information is posted based on reports and notifications gathered from National Guaranteeing Associations and public sectors, the ATA Secretariat tries its best to make the data up-to-date, but ICC, in any case, is not liable for the accuracy of the content posted

National Guaranteeing Association

Wellington Chamber of Commerce

Date of accession to the ATA system

28/02/1978

Field of application notified

ATA Convention

Convention on "Professional equipment"

Convention on "Exhibitions and Fairs"

Convention on "Commercial samples"

Convention on "Scientific equipment"

Convention on "Pedagogic material"

Convention on "Private Road Vehicle"

Protocol to the "Convention concerning facilities for touring"

Application under national laws

Temporary admission carried out under national laws and regulations except for:

Goods intended for processing or repair

Goods intended for normal manufacturing, commercial, industrial or agricultural uses

TV advertising videotapes and TV advertising films.

Unique articles i.e. articles which cannot be marked suitable for identification purposes (e.g. precious/semiprecious unmounted stones).

Territorial coverage

Customs territory

Other applications

ATA Carnets are accepted for postal traffic

ATA Carnets are accepted for transit

ATA Carnets are accepted for unaccompanied consignments.

Languages in which Carnets should be completed

English. New Zealand Customs may require a translation for Carnets completed in any other language.

Replacement carnet

New Zealand Customs considers replacement carnets on a situational basis. However, in most cases, replacements are granted as long as the following information has been provided to the NGO at carnet@wecc.org.nz:

- Carnet Number
- Port of Importation
- Date of Importation
- Reason for Replacement & likely date of re-exportation
- Representative possessing the goods while they are in New Zealand

Regularization fee requested by Customs

No

Customs offices

- Auckland International Airport Customs - 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- Christchurch International Airport and Wellington International Airport Customs- 22 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- Dunedin International Airport Customs- 12:00pm to 17:00pm, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.
- Queenstown Airport Customs- 5:00am to 22:30pm, 7 days a week. New Zealand Customs Service
- National Call Centre- 8:00am to 5:00pm, Mondays to Fridays.

Special observations