Pia Löfvenmark

It is more than 30 years since I started my career in the health food industry, it has been a fantastic journey and I have had the opportunity to see the industry from several angles, wholesale, retail and supplier. In the end of 2013 I started my company lintus ab, where I mainly will be engaged in consulting business and import health and natural products.

It is in marketing and sales I have solid experience and it is in these areas that lintus ab will active. Today I have an assignment for one off the biggest Swedish health import company as a Key account manager for sales and marketing. Another important business is to import Fairtrade and organic clothes. I have a great interest in social media and I also help clients with their social media.

Exhibitions and events are also an area where I have had a number of assignments and where I have great knowledge and experience. My curiosity and that I like challenges means that lintus ab will always find new exciting missions. www.lintus.se

Lena Karlsson

I am Lena Karlsson, and I enjoy being active in business even though I have retired several years ago from my previous professional life. Today I have my own business working in the network marketing industry with Jeunesse Global in skincare and healthcare based in the anti-aging technology. A business which I would like to work in Croatia as well. I am looking for people to join in my international team! I still have dreams and goals and want to work with creative people in business reaching new heights.

When I after 20 years in USA moved back to Sweden with a University Degree in Finance, work experience both from Wall Street and from a support role in politics in my back pocket I found a great company, STS in Gothenburg, where I worked with students and universities around the world. It was very rewarding to see students have dreams, study, grow and reach their goals.

Now in my own business I build an organisation of people who have dreams and goals working together to reach common goals in the network marketing world. Full of enthusiasm and energy I like to inspire people to reach new heights through great opportunities!

Yvonne Lindblom

My name is Yvonne Lindblom and my education is within financial business. I am married to John Lindblom, a naval architect, and together with him I am owner of our company John H.V. Lindblom Yacht Design AB. We have run this business for almost 30 years now. He is the designer of not only small power boats or sailing boats, but also mega yachts up to 148 feet, which are produced in Taiwan. Together with him I have been salesman for many of his projects on boat shows worldwide.

I have also founded the company MLF Jewellery AB, and within this company I introduced my brother-in-law, Mr. Morris Lindblom's jewelries into the Swedish market.

Quite recently I have started a new company together with my son, Ricono Produktion AB, a company that sells "stone tough jobs", that means we are producing mark structures for big companies and cities. This is a business dominated by men. Therefore I decided to join the network "Qoola Qvinnor" which might give me new experience that will enrich my business engagement.

Agneta Rebo, Referral Institute

Agneta Rebo is a committed and respected educator. She has for 17 years been running her own business with computer training and consulting assignments relating to Microsoft Project, Word and Excel. She has in this area helped people in over 300 different companies.

More recently, she has, after having seen what it means for business to work strategically with referral marketing, opted to continue her education in order to help and teach other entrepreneurs to create more and better business through recommendations. She is coached by the leading experts in the world, including Dr. Ivan Misner (Founder of BNI Business Network), Mike Macedonio and Dawn Lyons.

“Everything that happened in my life has taught me that EVERYONE has to take care of their own lives and do things they enjoy, and do it NOW. Do not wait for better times or procrastinate until later. Because later may not even exist. I have also learned that it is important to show others that I care.”

One way to do this is to help other business owners, preferably with some sports background that had to overcome injuries or other obstacles, to get better business NOW. I can do that by helping them develop a steady stream of referrals through a structured, well-proven method. This will get them that championship business they want to have so that they can get back to living the lives they have been aiming for. And to have that victory TODAY!
